- a. Items, records, or information⁴ relating to visual depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct;
- b. Items, records, or information relating to the receipt, distribution, or transportation of visual depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct;
- c. Items, records, or information concerning communications about the receipt, distribution, or transportation of visual depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct;
- d. Items, records, or information concerning communications about the sexual abuse or exploitation of minors;
- e. Items, records, or information related to communications with or about minors;
- f. Items, records, or information concerning the identities and contact information (including mailing addresses) of any individuals involved in the receipt, distribution, or transportation of visual depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct, saved in any form;
- g. Items, records, or information concerning occupancy, residency or ownership of the SUBJECT PREMISES and SUBJECT VEHICLE, including without limitation, utility and telephone bills, mail envelopes, addressed correspondence, purchase or lease agreements, diaries, statements, identification documents, address books, telephone directories, and keys;

⁴ As used above, the terms "records" and "information" includes all forms of creation or storage, including any form of computer or electronic storage (such as hard disks or other media that can store data); any handmade form (such as writing); any mechanical form (such as printing or typing); and any photographic form (such as microfilm, microfiche, prints, slides, negatives, videotapes, motion pictures, or photocopies).

- 1 h. Items, records, or information concerning the ownership or use of computer
- 2 equipment found in the SUBJECT PREMISES and SUBJECT VEHICLE,
- 3 including, but not limited to, sales receipts, bills for internet access, handwritten
- 4 notes, and computer manuals;
- 5 i. Any digital devices or other electronic storage media⁵ and/or their components
- 6 including:
- 7 i. any digital device or other electronic storage media capable of being used
- 8 to commit, further, or store evidence, fruits, or instrumentalities of the
- 9 offenses listed above;
- 10 ii. any magnetic, electronic or optical storage device capable of storing data,
- 11 including thumb drives, SD cards, or external hard drives;
- 12 iii. any physical keys, encryption devices, dongles and similar physical items
- 13 that are necessary to gain access to the computer equipment, storage
- 14 devices or data; and
- 15 iv. any passwords, password files, test keys, encryption codes or other
- 16 information necessary to access the computer equipment, storage devices
- 17 or data.
- 18 j. For any digital device or other electronic storage media whose seizure is
- 19 otherwise authorized by this warrant, and any digital device or other electronic
- 20 storage media that contains or in which is stored records or information that is
- 21 otherwise called for by this warrant:
- 22 i. evidence of who used, owned, or controlled the digital device or other
- 23 electronic storage media at the time the things described in this warrant
- 24 were created, edited, or deleted, such as logs, registry entries,
- 25 configuration files, saved usernames and passwords, documents, browsing
- 26 history, user profiles, email, email contacts, "chat," instant messaging

- 28

⁵ The term "digital devices" includes all types of electronic, magnetic, optical, electrochemical, or other high speed data processing devices performing logical, arithmetic, or storage functions, including desktop computers, notebook computers, mobile phones, tablets, server computers, and network hardware. The term "electronic storage media" includes any physical object upon which computer data can be recorded. Examples include hard disks, RAM, floppy disks, flash memory, CD-ROMs, and other magnetic or optical media.

- 1 ii. evidence of software that would allow others to control the digital device
2 or other electronic storage media, such as viruses, Trojan horses, and other 3 forms of malicious software, as well as evidence of the presence or 4 absence of security software designed to detect malicious software;
- 5 iii. evidence of the lack of such malicious software;
- 6 iv. evidence of the attachment to the digital device of other storage devices or 7 similar containers for electronic evidence;
- 8 v. evidence of counter-forensic programs (and associated data) that are 9 designed to eliminate data from the digital device or other electronic 10 storage media;
- 11 vi. evidence of the times the digital device or other electronic storage media 12 was used;
- 13 vii. passwords, encryption keys, and other access devices that may be 14 necessary to access the digital device or other electronic storage media;
- 15 viii. documentation and manuals that may be necessary to access the digital 16 device or other electronic storage media or to conduct a forensic 17 examination of the digital device or other electronic storage media;
- 18 ix. records of or information about the Internet Protocol used by the digital 19 device or other electronic storage media;
- 20 x. records of internet activity, including firewall logs, caches, browser 21 history and cookies, "bookmarked" or "favorite" web pages, search terms
22 that the user entered into any internet search engine, and records of user-23 typed web addresses.
- 24 xi. contextual information necessary to understand the evidence described in 25 this attachment.

26 This warrant authorizes a review of electronic storage media and electronically stored 27 information seized or copied pursuant to this warrant in order to locate evidence, fruits, and 28 instrumentalities described in this warrant. The review of this electronic data may be conducted by any government personnel assisting in the investigation, who may include, in addition to law enforcement officers and agents, attorneys for the government, attorney support staff, and technical experts. Pursuant to this warrant, law enforcement may deliver a complete copy of the 1 seized or copied electronic data to the custody and control of attorneys for the government and 2 their support staff for their independent review.
